The Carrefour Foundation launches its first call for projects in 8 countries where the Group is present: Together for the food transition 2022

Following the remarkable interests generated by its French call for projects towards local associative initiatives in the past two years with Ensemble pour la transition alimentaire, the Carrefour Foundation replicates the model within eight countries of the Carrefour group: Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Italy, Poland, Romania, Spain, and Taiwan. The goal of Together for the food transition: give a helping hand to local nonprofit organizations to develop their sustainable agriculture, zero-food waste or nutritional education projects. For this first edition, one NGO per country will be rewarded 30,000 € for a total of 240,000€.

Together for the food transition's call for projects begins on Monday, October 17th, 2022. Dedicated to nonprofit organizations, it aims to reward solidarity projects in favor of healthy and sustainable food that work for one of the three following themes:

- sustainable agriculture ;
- zero-food waste ;
- nutritional education.

“For more than 20 years, the Carrefour Foundation has supported associative initiatives dedicated to the solidarity food transition. With our international call for projects, we aim to make a path forward by reaching more rural and isolated areas that need a particular boost, even more during these critical times.” Marie-Astrid Raoult, Director of the Carrefour Foundation.

Applicants have until Sunday, November 13th, 2022 to submit their project. The members of the jury, composed of the Carrefour Foundation and Carrefour teams dedicated to social action of each country, will focus on preservation of the environment, impact in the territory and public addressed (disadvantaged people as youth, the elderly, rural citizens...).

The announcement of the 8 winners (one per country) will take place on Monday, December 12th, 2022. Each of them will receive a fund of 30,000€ from the Carrefour Foundation to help their project grow. The Carrefour Foundation's team will be at their side through the various development phases during the year of support.
